www.brokenrelationships.com

The Museum of Broken Relationships is a joint-author art project conceptualized in 2006 by a former couple from Croatia. It grew from a travelling exhibition revolving around the concept of failed relationships. The Museum is located in Zagreb's Upper Town – a historical part of the city rich in tourist attractions. In 2011 the Museum received the Kenneth Hudson Award as the most innovative and daring achievement that challenges the common perceptions of the role of museums in today's society. Visit some or all of the 92 exhibits and enjoy shopping at the unique museum shop or relax in the cafe.
